These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ, Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Docket Number 2483CV00692

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

PLYMOUTH, SS SUPERIOR COURT DEPARTMENT

PAUL O'KEEFE, as Personal Representative of the Estate of JOHN JOSEPH O'KEEFE III, PAUL O'KEEFE, Individually, JOHN O'KEEFE II, MARGARET O'KEEFE, and MARGARET O'KEEFE as Grandparent/ Guardian of KAYLEY FURBUSH,

Plaintiffs,

v.

C&C HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, G&S HOSPITALITY, LLC d/b/a C.F. MCCARTHY'S, WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, LTD d/b/a WATERFALL BAR & GRILL, and KAREN READ,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2483cv00692

DEFENDANT KAREN READ'S MOTION TO COMPEL NICOLE AND BRIAN ALBERT, JENNIFER AND MATTHEW MCCABE, ALLIE MCCABE, AND BRIAN HIGGINS TO ATTEND DEPOSITIONS AND PRODUCE DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO NON-PARTY SUBPOENAS
(Memorandum incorporated)

Defendant Karen Read ("Read") respectfully requests that the Court compel Nicole and Brian Albert, Matthew and Jennifer McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins (collectively, "Delinquent Non-Parties") to produce documents and attend their depositions pursuant to validly-issued subpoenas. Specifically, the Delinquent Non-Parties refuse to produce required documents and refuse show up for deposition on required dates pursuant to the subpoenas. As a result, Read seeks a Court Order requiring the Delinquent Non-Parties each to immediately provide 3 non-overlapping dates for deposition between the date of the Court's Order to July 17

(excluding June 26-July 3), and produce all responsive documents pursuant to the subpoenas previously served within 10 days of such Order.

The Delinquent Non-Parties counsel accepted service of the subpoenas to each of them on May 5, 2026. A true and accurate copy of the correspondence regarding acceptance and the subpoenas themselves are attached as collective Exhibit 1. However, unlike Colin Albert – Brian and Nicole Albert's nephew – the Delinquent Non-Parties did not serve objections to the subpoenas within the ten days provided by Mass. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1).[1] Instead, almost four weeks later, on June 1st, the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel served purported objections – objecting to everything and producing no documents - and then indicated that none of the Delinquent Non-Parties were available for the dates included in their subpoenas in early June and mid-June, and that the subpoenas were merely "proposed" dates that they, apparently, reject unilaterally. True and accurate copies of the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel's email and the attached responses and objections are attached as collective Exhibit 2.

The Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel did not provide any explanation for their unavailability, writing only, "[w]ith respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas" and listing dates he said were available, almost all of which were on or after July 20th. Thus, nearly a month after they were served, and just nine days before the depositions were set to begin, the Delinquent Non-Parties purported to unilaterally postpone all of their depositions (except for one) for a month or more.

[1] As described in Read's pending Motion to Compel Colin to appear and produce documents, Colin (who is represented by the same counsel as the Delinquent Non-Parties) seasonably objected to the subpoena to him, but then refused to produce documents, failed to promptly provide available future dates for deposition, then, belatedly at the last moment, indicated that he would only be available for two single days the very next week when counsel was not available and not available afterwards.

The Rules do not permit non-party subpoena recipients to control the timing of their own depositions. Of course, Read's counsel was (and is) willing to accommodate reasonable scheduling conflicts and concerns, and was willing to reorder the Delinquent Non-Parties' depositions, or take them on other dates within the same time range. But that is not what the Delinquent Non-Parties have unilaterally declared. If Read is forced to wait until the limited mid-July through mid-August dates the Delinquent Non-Parties proposed, the Court's discovery period – which Read has worked diligently to comply with – will be placed in significant jeopardy. Therefore, Read requests that the Court order each of the Delinquent Non-Parties to provide 3 non-overlapping dates immediately for the next 30 days (except for June 26-July 3) for deposition.

Finally, regarding documents, the Delinquent Non-Parties have directly violated Rule 45. Their objections – if any – were due within ten days after service. They did not file any objections within that period, nor did they request an extension of that time. Rather, the time during which they had to object came and went without objection. Seventeen (17) days after the Rule 45 objection period expired, they emailed what they called "objections." These "objections", however, have no effect under the rules. Moreover, this is yet another example of unexcused delay, which the Court should not countenance at this juncture among any counsel – including the Delinquent Non-Parties' counsel who are watching every hearing in this matter. Failure to object to a subpoena within the time provided by the Rules ordinarily results in waiver of such objections, especially where there are no extenuating circumstances. See Lease Resolution Corp. v. Aut-A-Wash, Inc., No. 92-1767, 2021 Mass. Super LEXIS 2 at *3-4 (Jan. 8, 2001) (failure to timely object to discovery requests constitutes waiver of objections); see also In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 274 F.3d 563, 576 (1st Cir. 2001) (explaining that "party that fails to submit a privilege log is deemed to waive" claims or privilege or work product protection.); Pons v. Walter Kidde Portable Equip. Inc., No. 2025 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93919 at *6 (D. Mass. May 16, 2025) ("Failure to timely and properly object to the subpoena generally constitutes a waiver of all grounds for objection, including privilege."); Burroughs Corp. v. Dataware Sources, Inc., No. 86-608, 1987 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10334 at *2 (D. Mass. Apr. 28, 1987) ("When objections [to a subpoena] are not filed within the time provided by the Rule, the objections are waived."). Therefore, Read also requests that the Court order each Delinquent Non-Party provide all documents responsive to Read's subpoenas within ten (10) days of such Order.

Subject: RE: O'Keefe et al v. C&C Hospitality LLC et al (2483cv00692) - May 5 Subpoena Responses

Chas—

These subpoenas were mirror images of the one Ms. Read previously served on Colin Albert, about which we've already had a meet and confer, so you've had our position on their vagueness and overbreadth for quite some time. We've relayed on multiple occasions that we are unwilling to produce over four years of communications among family members and others in response to non-party subpoenas that do not make any good faith effort to tailor the requests by topic or scope. The outcome of your pending motion to compel compliance with Colin Albert's subpoena will undoubtedly influence these identical subpoenas, and we will modify our responses and objections accordingly (and to the extent necessary) following the Court's ruling on that motion.

With respect to the depositions, our clients are not available on the dates proposed in the subpoenas. Their availability to sit for depositions in the wrongful death action is as follows:

- Brian Albert: July 20-31
- Nicole Albert: July 20-31
- Jennifer McCabe: July 23-24, July 27-30, August 4-7, August 10-14
- Matthew McCabe: July 27-29, August 4-6
- Allie McCabe: June 22, July 20
- Brian Higgins: July 29-30

Please let us know which of these dates also work for the parties in the wrongful death action and we will confirm the depositions with each of our clients promptly.

Regards,
Kieran

Mass. R. Civ. P. 45 requires objections to subpoenas within 10 days after service. Here, that deadline passed on May 15th without objection. Therefore, the attachments to your email below are not effective objections.

Please produce all responsive documents immediately pursuant to the properly issued and served subpoenas that require production of responsive documents by June 1st so that I have them in time for the depositions.

Chas.

Hi Chas—

Attached please find responses and objections to the May 5 subpoenas that were served on non-parties Brian Albert, Nicole Albert, Jennifer McCabe, Matthew McCabe, Allie McCabe, and Brian Higgins in the above-referenced matter. Copying in all counsel of record for transparency.

Also, please note, "Allie" McCabe is not short for "Allison."

Regards,
Kieran
